

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information contact
Rod Ritcherson
rod.ritcherson@umos.org

UMOS ANNOUNCES NEW PROMOTIONS

In preparation for current and future challenging times, UMOs has undergone corporate organizational changes.

Effective since January 2017, Tina Koehn, former Vice President, Administration, has been promoted to Chief Operating Officer.

Other UMOs promotions include: Jose Martinez, former Director of Child Development Programs, has been promoted to Vice President, Farmworker and Community-Based Services, Barb Felske, former Chief Information Officer, has been promoted to Vice President, Technology and Facilities Management, Parker Rios, former Director of Workforce Development, has been promoted to Vice President, Workforce Development, and Kaye Hartmann, former Director of Planning and Resource Development, has been promoted to Vice President, Planning and Resource Development.

“UMOS is optimistic about the future,” states Lupe Martinez, President and Chief Executive Officer. “This organizational restructuring will better align the organization to meet the challenges and changes we face in the present, as well as the challenges and changes we will face in the future.”

UMOS is a non-profit, advocacy organization that provides programs and services which improve the employment, educational, health and housing opportunities of under-served populations